KINGSVILLE.

Master Eddie Rounten is ill of typhoid fever.

G. A. Walter has improved the appearance of his store wonderfully with fresh paint.

There is considerable talk of a wedding to occur soon, but we are unable to give particulars.

Squire Smith is building a splendid log house of the old Virginia style. When completed, it is to be neatly weatherboarded.

The railroad company has commenced work on the pond south of the depot and will establish a water tank and then the round house a little later.

Mrs. James Rowland, formerly of Grant county, is very ill with dropsy of the heart. Mack Williams continues ill, but is now thought to be improving. Master Obe Francis has been clerking at W. L. McCarty's.

Rev. R. H. Jones, of Lexington, filled his appointment at the Christian church Sunday, preaching several good sermons. Mr. Jones is very anxious that the members will observe "children's day." Miss Lucy Johnson was elected organist.

W. L. McCarty is painting his canning factory and will also paint his dwelling and store house and with the Macabees will soon begin the erection of a hall—a large two-story building, the first story to be used for furniture, etc., and the second for a public hall.

We heard an interesting account a few days ago of "Grandma" Hogue, as she is called by those who know her well. The lady we allude to is Mrs. Matilda Hogue, of Casey, who is the guest of her son, William, of near here. She is 85 years old; notwithstanding she wears no glasses and has read her Bible through 21 times, that she has kept account of and several times which she didn't count. She is the mother of 14 children. She can piece quilts and perform any number of like tasks.

Miss Virginia Johnson has returned from Verona, where she has been visiting her sister and attending school. D. M. Creighton is visiting friends in Somerset. Mrs. W. W. Walter and baby, of Stanford, were the guests of relatives here. Mrs. W. L. McCarty returned home Monday from Stanford, where for some time past she has been under the care of Dr. W. H. O'Bannon. Dr. O'Bannon, of Stanford, was here a few days since. Felix Twidwell, after a month's absence, was here last week taking orders from our merchants. Miss Dora Hickey is the guest of relatives at McKinney.

HIGHLAND.

Born to the wife of H. H. Walls, a girl.

Mrs. Ida Bell continues very ill. Her husband's baby boy, Beckham, has been very ill for the past week.

Elder Martin Owens failed to reach his appointment at Mt. Moriah Sunday and Elder Long filled his pulpit.

A Sunday school was organized at Greasy Ridge school house recently, which meets at 2:30 each Sunday afternoon.

Some of our farmers are still planting corn and some are getting ready to set tomato plants as soon as the long-looked-for rain comes.

Mrs. Martin and children, who have been visiting here for some time, have returned to their home at Mt. Salem. Misses Emmeline Young, Mamie Chestnut and Bessie Chestnut have gone to Hurside to visit relatives. C. H. Baker has returned from Somerset.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came to a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Kayder, of Platten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.' For sale by Craig & Hoeker."

My Love is the winter rose
That sweetly blooms alone—
That has of rivals none, and knows
A beauty all her own.

My Love is like a tender tune
That wakens tender words—
That fills December full of June,
And brings again the birds.

Her smile, my sun, her voice, my song,
Her lace, my flower of bliss;
Oh, who could find the winter long
With such a Love as this?

The earliest extant manuscript of the Hebrew old testament is a copy of the pentateuch, now in the British Museum and assigned to the ninth century, and the earliest manuscript bearing a precise date is a copy of the prophets, at St. Petersburg, dated A. D. 910, while the majority of the manuscripts belong to much later periods.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

M. S. Fife is dead at Harrodsburg, aged 97. An aged wife survives him. Robert Adams, a wealthy farmer of College Hill, Madison county, was found dead in his bed. He retired in good health.

Wm. Powell, of Danville, and Lee Turner, of Bradfordsville, are contemplating the building of a big flouring mill at Junction City.

Dillard Fielder, a miller employed by the Waco Milling Company in Madison, while oiling machinery was so badly injured that one of his hands had to be amputated.

The Jung Brewing Company was fined $200 in the Laurel circuit court for keeping a nuisance at Pittsburg. The company is in the wholesale beer business at that place.

Gov. Beckham appointed W. B. Smith, of Richmond, special judge of the Laurel circuit court to preside in the divorce proceedings of Sarah R. Moreland against Vincent Moreland.

The judgment of the Boyle circuit court in the case of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway Co., against Annie K. Hill, was affirmed with damages. She secured judgment in the court below for $300 for personal injuries sustained in getting off a train at Danville.

A London special says:—Very little business has been done in the circuit court at this place this week. The only conviction was that of George Owens, who was given one year in the penitentiary for perjury. Sol Gilbert, who was brought here from Texas on a charge of having killed Riley Owens, was acquitted.

J. D. Holderman has arrived from Frankfort to take charge of the city light plant. We are glad to have him locate with us and can heartily commend him to the people of Somerset. Will R. Gooch attended the Sunday School Convention at Waynesburg last Sunday, and says there were 800 people present and abundance of good things to eat—Somerset Republican.

Under a good picture of Mr. M. J. Farria, of Danville, the Louisville Times says: He is the largest landholder in Boyle county, owning 2,500 acres of the best bluegrass soil on the outskirts of Danville. He also owns 10,000 acres of land in New Mexico. He is president of the Citizens' National Bank of Danville, and has on hand at the present time $125,000 worth of cattle. He is one of the most generous men in the blue grass and donates liberally to all enterprises. His subscription toward the erection of the new Baptist church was $2,500.

LIBERTY.

The refreshing rain that fell Thursday was a God-send.

Mrs. Mose Tanner was called to see her mother at Somerset last Thursday, who is very ill.

Hon. George E. Stone and family are visiting in Monticello. Jason Wesley, of Middleburg, was over Friday looking after his contest. Tyler Baker, of Columbia, is in this county looking after his father's interests, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for circuit judge in this district.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lipe, the devoted wife of Mr. A. Lipe, died on the 21st, of complications of diseases after a lingering illness of several weeks. She and her husband came here from Germany 50 years ago and have lived here ever since. She was about 80 years of age. The funeral obsequies were performed by Eld. J. Q. Montgomery at the grave, where many friends were gathered to show their last respect to the beloved neighbor.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c and $1.

To The Democrats of Lincoln County.

In due time I will announce myself a candidate for the office of jailer of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the democratic party, and in view of the fact that Mr. Herrin has announced that he will be a candidate I feel that I owe it to myself to make this statement now. It is true, as stated in Mr. Herrin's card that it is customary to give a good officer an endorsement, but Mr. Herrin is not in condition to claim the benefit of this worthy custom. It will be remembered that I was about to make a contest with Mr. Herrin for the nomination shortly after the primary election, which he claims nominated him. I firmly believed at that time that I was the nominee of the democratic party for the office of jailer, and have had no cause since to change my opinion. I realized that a contest would be hurtful to party harmony and abandoned the idea under the following circumstances: Mr. Herrin proposed to me that if I would not make the contest and would support him, that he would not run for the office next time, but would support me instead. I accepted his proposition, abandoned the idea of a contest, and did all I could for Mr. Herrin in the November election following. The agreement between Mr. Herrin and myself was witnessed by three good men, who will bear me out in the above statement. For these reasons I don't think that Mr. Herrin is in condition to claim an endorsement at this time, and after giving the matter due consideration myself I believe that he will come to the same conclusion. DINK FARMER.

A Locomotive That Climbs Stairs.

A steam engine that can climb a stairway or tramp through a jungle is the recent amazing invention of Bramah J. Diplock, an Englishman.

It is called the Pedral.

The wheels are rollers, mounted on elephant-like feet shod with rubber, and laid down, forming a combination of an inverted endless railway with a walking or trotting machine.

This Pedral idea has been applied with particular success to traction engines, and with their equipment of feet these engines are quite independent of roads. They can cross ditches, if not too deep or steep, walk over plowed fields or rough, stony plains and can even climb mountains.

Among the merits of the Pedral is the reduction of the wear and tear of the road surface. Heavy vehicles with ordinary wheels do endless damage to the highway, but the Pedral, in that it tends to beat down the projections without increasing the depressions in the road surface, actually tends to improve the road.

Furthermore the Pedral gives the maximum of road adhesion and the minimum of road resistance.

A vehicle fitted with Pedral can travel over the worst roads, can be used where no roads exist, can climb stiff viaducts and can surmount with ease obstacles in its path. In trials the Pedral walked over nine-inch planks, and passed over large stones without crushing them.—New York World.

The Best Liniment.

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelgans, of Tuckaboe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by Craig & Hoeker.

A Kansas man who advertised for a cook and a music teacher got none replies to the former and 389 to the latter.

A fire at Carlisle caused $25,000 damage and injured 10 persons, one probably fatally.

J. M. ALVERSON

A STRONG movement has been begun in Richmond, Va., for the removal of the dead body of Patrick Henry from its present humble and neglected grave in Charlotte county to St. John's churchyard in Richmond and the erection of a marble monument to the great Virginia orator and revolutionist. The idea is to have Mr. Henry's body interred, if possible, beneath St. John's church, about at the spot where tradition says he stood while delivering his famous speech which culminated in the words, "Give me liberty or give me death." The suggested monument will be of white marble and under a covering like that of Clay in Capitol square. A meeting will be called some time next week and a preliminary organization formed.

DR. NEWELL DWIGHT HILLIS, of New York, says he would consider it an honor to make up the bed of Booker T. Washington. We do not know the doctor, but suspect from his utterance, that he is a fellow of hardly sufficient intelligence to make a good hotel boy, or he might be making his living making up beds for Negroes instead of trying to preach such rot as the above.

THOSE who have kept tally say that Roosevelt has made over 200 speeches since he became president. He has discussed everything, politics, babies, marriage, trusts, tariff, idealism, race suicide and what not. He says many good things, but he is working his mouth overtime and should give his brain time to catch up.

SENATOR MORGAN is entirely right in saying that some concessions must be made by both supporters of Mr. Bryan and Mr. Cleveland and their followers, before the Democratic party can be reunited. That is the simplest of propositions, and wise indeed, will be its fulfillment.

ONE thousand three hundred slot machines were publicly burned in Philadelphia by order of the director of public safety. If such an order were made in Kentucky cities there are many people who would not know what to do with their small change.

AT a business session of the Confederate Veteran's reunion at New Orleans all of the former officers were re-elected and it was reported that $57,000 had been subscribed for the monument to Jefferson Davis. The amount desired is $75,000.

NEITHER of the old party presidential candidates will have the support of the Populists next year, National Chairman Marion Butler says. The People's party will nominate a ticket of its own.

POLITICAL.

Paul Hefflin, a young attorney, was nominated for representative by the democrats of Fleming.

Clarence H. Keep, of Buffalo, has been appointed assistant secretary of the treasury to succeed Milton E. Allen.

Ohio was 100 years old this week. There is a good deal of curiosity to know how she got along during all the years before Mark Hanna began to hold her up by the tail.—Lexington Democrat.

Deficiencies in both the regular and rural free delivery service aggregating $237,467 have been reported as a result of the postoffice department investigation. Congress will be asked to make an appropriation covering the deficiencies.

It is reported that the republican State Convention to be held in Louisville in July will be called upon to endorse President Roosevelt to a resolution similar to the one Senator Foraker is expected to introduce in the Ohio State Convention.

In Louisville an injunction was granted against Chairman Allice W. Young and the primary set for today is being held.

President Roosevelt passed an uneventful Sunday at Seattle, resting after his strenuous Saturday. In the morning he attended G. A. R. memorial services, and in the afternoon rode to Fort Lawton. He is under guard of the secret officers and the State militia. Gov. Beckham continues to have honors thrust upon him. A late issue of the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL shows that a very fine specimen of the genus assinus has been given his name. We believe it was Senator Blackburn who said a man never reached the top rung of the ladder of fame till such an animal was named for him.—Lexington Democrat.

Senator Hanna went on record opposed to Senator Foraker's proposed resolution endorsing President Roosevelt for the next nomination in the State convention to be held in June. Mr. Hanna said the convention of 1901 should not be deprived of its prerogative in this respect. He also reiterated his statement that he is not an aspirant for presidential honors.

The Democratic State Central Committee at Frankfort adopted a resolution ordering the Democratic Executive Committee of Jefferson county to call off the local Democratic primary scheduled for today. The local committee will not obey the order and declares its purpose to hold the primary as contemplated. The action of Chairman Young was roundly denounced at a meeting of local candidates, committeemen and other party leaders. It was the unanimous sentiment of the meeting that the State Central Committee had exceeded its authority.

MR. JOHN H. ENGLEMAN has a three-acre watermelon patch on Mr. W. P. Tait's farm, which ought to be a good one. The land had been in grass until this year for over a half century and is probably as rich a piece of ground as there is in this section. There are close to 2,500 hills in the patch.

THERE are two gentlemen living in the Preachersville section only a mile apart who have never seen each other that they know of, although each has lived at his present abode six years or more. They are Messrs. John Smith and W. Perry White and their houses are in sight. As they do not know each other there certainly can be no feeling between them, and it is indeed strange that they have never met. Neither is much of a visitor as is proven by the present state of affairs.

THE court of appeals affirmed the decision of the Casey circuit court in the case of J. J. Moore, administrator of his daughter, against the Board of Internal Improvement of Lincoln county. The verdict given by the Casey court was for $13,000. It will be remembered that a daughter of Mr. Moore was killed while going through the toll-gate near Danville, while soldiers were in charge of the gate. Our readers are too familiar with the circumstances to make it necessary to give further details.

THE announcement for sheriff of Jesse C. Lynn appears in another column. There is no more popular man nor better democrat in this section of the State and that he would make a fine sheriff, none will gainsay. A good business man, not afraid to execute any paper placed in his hands, "big old Jesse" is fine timber for sheriff and his legion of friends and admirers will do all in their power to bring about a realization of his fond hopes. He is the eldest son of one of Lincoln county's best and most substantial citizens, Mr. James E. Lynn.

CAESAR MINOR, one of the best known characters in the West End, died Thursday night. For years "Minor," as he was called, ran a barber shop at Hustonville and for a long time he was a successful barber, but in later years he became nervous and could not give as smooth a shave as in days gone by. This caused some of his customers to go elsewhere and "gazing" had been short with him for some time. Minor was a good-hearted, honorable darkey and had been called on to do more favors than probably any man in the county. He was always willing to serve his fellow man and cared very little for remuneration for his services. In fact he was a pretty fair type of the old Southern Negro, very few of whom are now living. A large crowd of both white and colored people attended the burial Friday afternoon and tears were shed as clever old Minor's body was lowered to its last resting place. Peace to the ashes of the good old darkey.

ABOUT MAD DOGS - There are two stages of rabies. In the first, the dog is restless and uneasy. He has a hacking cough, shifts from one place to another, and toward the end of the first stage begins to bite at the place of inoculation. In this stage he is harmless, and can be easily put out of the way. In the second stage he becomes violent, wanders off, and will bite anything that interferes with him, though he will never attack unless he is attacked. Always turn out for a dog that won't turn out for you, and you will avoid all danger.

CIRCUIT COURT begun at Mt. Vernon yesterday with Special Judge R. C. Warren on the bench. The petit jury had been summoned to appear on the second day and the only thing done yesterday was Judge Warren's able charge to the grand jury. To-day court will get down to business right. There are six murder cases on the docket and besides, a number of other Commonwealth and civil cases. It will take two full weeks to clear up the big docket - a thing Mr. Warren is very anxious to do. Gov. Beckham's appointment of Mr. W. was welcome news to the Mt. Vernon bar, every member of which loves and respects "Honest Dick," as many of his friends call him. A big crowd was present and three newspaper men, a patent medicine man, a notion fakir and an oculist all found "good grazing." People generally were in good spirits, merchants were doing well, farmers were up with their work and only the drouth to grumble about, and the day was a busy one from early till late. "Big court" is a general holiday with many Rockcastle farmers, numbers of whom think if they do not get to town on that day, court will not be held. They come from all sections and the majority of them enjoy the day hugely.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Of the 52 graduates at Princeton Seminary this year two will go to foreign fields and 12 to home mission fields.

Rev. A. A. Meyers, of Lincoln Memorial School, and Miss Grace O. Funk were married at Middleboro.

Thomas Payne and Miss Maude Pangburn, both of the Kingsville section, will be married at Pleasant Point church on July 26. A general invitation is extended.

Will S. Embury and Miss Yantle and Guy Davidson and Miss Bessie Batson, popular young society people of Garrard, eloped to Cincinnati yesterday and were married.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merrill, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at all druggists.

"Mammy" Hater, who was the slave and servant of Presidents John Adams and James Monroe, is dead, aged 103. A Negro at Newark, N. J., died of glanders.
